Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That Paul Suguro is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2016-040386. There is probable cause to believe that [REDACTED] committed the crime of Assault within the City of Seattle, County of King, and State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are patients at the Navos Mental Health Facility at 2600 SW Holden Street in the City of Seattle, County of King and the State of Washington.

On February 2nd, 2015, [REDACTED] entered the "Pandora Room" where patients are able to listen to music of their choosing, at approximately 4:45 PM. [REDACTED] said when it was his turn to go into the room; he saw an article of clothing in the room. [REDACTED] picked up the piece of clothing and placed it on the floor outside of the "Pandora Room." [REDACTED] went back into the room and sat down in a chair.

[REDACTED] entered the room and asked [REDACTED] why he was throwing [REDACTED]'s clothes around. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he didn't throw anything.

[REDACTED] stood over [REDACTED] and began hitting [REDACTED] in the head and face with his fists. [REDACTED] said he was punched eight to ten times in the head and face.

[REDACTED] was transported to Harborview Medical Center where he was treated for several lacerations to his face that required stitches. [REDACTED] was also treated for a fractured cheek bone.

[REDACTED] returned to Navos on February 3rd and called 911 to report the assault. Officer Keating responded and contacted [REDACTED]. Officer Keating observed [REDACTED]'s left eye was back, bruised and swollen. Officer Keating photographed [REDACTED]'s injuries.

Officer Keating contacted [REDACTED] on the third floor of the facility and placed him under arrest. [REDACTED] was transported to the Southwest Precinct and later booked into King County Jail.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 4th day of February 2016, at Seattle, Washington.
